Associated Student Government
Executive Committee Standing Rules
2025-2026

Mission Statement: As the Associated Student Government Executive Team, we are committed to building a foundation of belonging and collaboration by being approachable, ethical leaders who empower students through transparency, effective policies, and impactful programming.

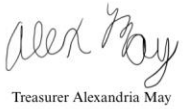

- Code & Constitution
    - The Executive Committee will conduct itself in such a manner that is adherent to both the Code and Constitution of the Associated Student Government.
- Composition
    - As per the Code and Constitution, the Executive Committee shall be comprised of the President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, and the Chair of Senate.
    - The ASG Chief of Staff, ASG Chief Justice, and ASG Freshman Leadership Forum Coordinator will be considered ex-officio, non-voting members of the Committee.
    - In the event of a tie vote, the vote of the ASG President shall serve as the decisive vote on the matter.
- Meetings
    - The Executive Committee will convene in the Arkansas Union at a designated time each week as determined by the Executive Committee.
    - Attendance:
        - All members of the Executive Committee, as previously defined within this document, shall attend every regularly scheduled meeting.
        - The Associated Student Government's Advisor shall also attend all regularly scheduled meetings as an ex-officio, non-voting member of the Executive Committee.
        - All staff members of the Division of Student Affairs and any members of the Associated Student Government retain an open invitation to attend the regularly scheduled meetings of the ASG Executive Committee as guests.
            - Guests must provide 24 hour written notice to the ASG President to attend.
            - If guests intend to speak, they must submit any agenda items to the ASG Chief of Staff 24 hours prior for approval by the Executive Committee.
            - If an emergent circumstance arises, reach out directly to the ASG President at least two hours prior to the regularly scheduled meeting start time to attend or speak.
    - Meeting Decorum:
        - Members of the Executive Committee shall be permitted to use their cell phone and/or laptop during the meeting if it is for ASG business.

        - All members of the Executive Committee shall be prepared to speak cogently about all their personal agenda item submissions. Failure to do so consistently may limit the inclusion of items on the final agenda.
        - If a member of the Executive Committee must arrive late, they must notify the ASG President via email, phone, or in-person at least 30 minutes prior to the meeting being called to order. If a member of the Executive Committee must leave early, they must notify the ASG President at least 24 hours prior to the meeting being called to order.
            - If the ASG President must arrive late or leave the meeting early, they must notify the ASG Advisor within those same time frames.
    - Absence:
        - Any member of the Executive Committee who is unable to attend a regularly scheduled meeting must inform the ASG President at least 24 hours prior to the meeting being called to order. He/she should submit a written version of his/her report at this time.
- Office Policies
    - Members of the ASG Executive Committee will maintain daily utilization of their ASG email account.
    - Members of the ASG Executive Committee will maintain an updated calendar on Outlook at all times.
    - Members of the ASG Executive Committee will maintain an updated version of their office hours posted on their door.
    - Printing in the ASG office is limited to ASG-related material.
- Expectations
    - The ASG Executive Committee will adhere to the agreed upon expectations determined by all committee members.
