Associated Student Government

Graduate Student Congress

Cabinet Retreat

16 June 2015

Fayetteville, Arkansas

Vision

To represent the common interests and voice of all students, the Associated Student Government provides an educational experience of shared governance in the University's decision and policy making process.

Purpose

The Graduate Student Congress exists to provide an institutional outlet for graduate students to voice their concerns. The GSC serves as the liaison between the graduate student body and other university entities that work with graduate students. A key mission of the GSC is to host social and professional development events for the entire graduate student body to create a sense of community on campus for graduate students.

The Graduate Student Congress composes half of the legislative branch of the Associated Student Government at the University of Arkansas and represents the voice of all graduate students.
